

Nothing was too much trouble

By Maria

The day its self was fantastic from the start of the day the staff kept us informed on all the arrangements of decorating the room, they guided our hairdressers and make up artists to our room and nothing was too much trouble. The timing of everything was organised by the staff and they let us knew when things were due to start and guided us to the ceremony room. The room looked beautiful and all our guests looked so happy and relaxed. The service was amazing, again the staff guided us and told us when to do things. I would recommend The Holiday Inn, for future Brides and Grooms, I promise you wont be disappointed and it will leave you with absolutely perfect memories.
